My dear Stokes,

I have now due to me rather over a month's privilege leave which I should like to take in May and June - If however it is inconvenient to Govt to let me have it, I would ask for permission to do my

My dear Stokes,

With reference to the enclosed, His Excellency wishes me to say that it would be inconvenient to give Sturrock leave now, & consequently, if Members see no objection, he himself would not object to Sturrock's doing his work at a hill station, as he suggests.

Yours sincerely,
