With reference to Madras Government Endorsement No. 928, Public, dated the 3rd of April, 1879, on Miss E. J. Poyson's application for refund of Rs 1100/- advanced to her is for Passage when first joining her appointment and subsequently recovered under G.O.
No. 959, Pub, dated 17th September, 1873, I have the honour to state that Travelling allowance for joining her first appointment to Miss Poyson's under the rules in force when she joined the service, could only have been granted under no^{ne} of the Government of India - If it is desired now to give retrospective effect to Article 119 Civil Service Regulations as it at present stands, and to grant Miss Pogson the sum she asks for, the sanction of the Government of India will be necessary.

Miss Pogson's application with the endorsement under reference is herewith returned.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

2. The Accountant Genl remarks that travelling allow for joining her first appt. to Miss Pagson, under the rules in force when she joined the service could only have been granted under orders of the Govt. of India, and that if it is desired to give retrospective effect to Art. 1191 C.S.R. in her case, the sanction of the Govt. of India will be necessary.

3. The Acct. Genl does not appear to be correct in his quotation of the rule. At the time of her appt. in 1873, Miss Pagson might have been granted a free passage from England by this Govt. under the provisions of G.O. Notification No 401 dated 24.1.67. Why the concession was not extended to her, cannot now be ascertained. The original of G.O. No 959/Indin dated 17.9.73 might throw some light on the matter.

but all efforts to trace the paper have failed. In any case, she would not have been granted the full sum of Rs 1100 for passage, as a portion of it was given for her outfit.

4. G.O. Notification No 401 dated 24.1.67 authorising the grant of free passage to persons joining their first appt. by sea, was cancelled by G.O. No 259 dated 22.1.81, long after Miss Pagson's appt. The rule which now forms Art. 1191 C.S.R., under which travelling allowance to join a first appt. is granted to persons appointed to posts requiring technical skill or knowledge, first found a place in the draft Civil Travelling allow Code of 1882 (Art. 14) - It was embodied in the first edition of the Civil

It appears from the foregoing notes that passage money might have been granted to Miss Poyson for her passage from England, but that it was not. It is submitted that the application for a revision now of a decision arrived at 1873 can hardly be considered.

Order No 586
10th May 1899
Home Dept

Sir,
I am directed to submit the following case for the favourable consideration of the Govt. of India.
2. Min. S. S. Pagon, late Meteorological Reporter to the Govt. of India, was originally appointed to the post service as Assistant

Ann. 11.26.5.87

to the Govt. Astronomer made in in 1873. In the Secy. of State's despatch communicated with endorsement from the Rev. & Agricultural Dept. No 3682-68-5 dated 21 Dec 1897 sanction was accorded to the Grant to her of a pension of Rs 250 per mensem on her retirement; & under the provisions of the further letter from the Rev. & Agriculture Dept. No 973 dated 8th March 1898, she was discharged to pension on the 1st April 1898.

3. On her first appointment in 1873, she might have been allowed a free passage ~~to~~ from England to Madras under the terms of Govt. of India Notification No 401 Financial dated 24 January 1867, but for reasons which are not now on record, she was granted only an advance of passage money, which was recovered from her salary after her arrival, by monthly instalments of

Rs 100. She is now desirous of returning to England, & being in straitened circumstances, she begs that the passage money, which might have been allowed to her free in 1873, may now be refunded to her to enable her to pay her passage home. H.B. the Govt in Council is of opinion that Miss Pogson long & faithful services, & the circumstances in which she was deprived of her appointment, entitle her case to the most favourable consideration.
The sum advanced to her in 1873 was for both passage & outfit and amounted to Rs 1100-paise.
This Govt. does not think ^{of this amount should} that a refund, ~~can~~ now be made to Miss Pogson, but would strongly recommend the Govt-
to her of a free first

Class passed to England, in lieu of the passport which might have been granted to her in 1873. As the war has to proceed to the
as soon as possible, I am to request the favour of a very early reply -
