India Army Form No. 60. Government of India Stock Forms on application, and which will be kept in the mobilization box until required for use.

In the event of mobilization on a large scale, the Government of India will also issue orders to Local Governments and Administrations, who will direct Civil officers in charge of districts, and Political Agents or Ministers of Native States under their orders, to issue a proclamation in all towns and villages in their charge, directing all men on leave and furlough to rejoin their corps without delay.

If a man is on leave, he will, in this case, rejoin at his own expense, the cost being recovered afterwards in the usual manner and refunded to him.

Extract from Appendix I, Part B, of Section X of Field Service Equipment Tables (Native Infantry), regarding the mobilization measures to be taken by a Native Infantry regiment on receipt of orders to mobilize.

* India Army Form No. 60. which can be procured from the Contractor for Printing Government of India Stock Forms on application, and which will be kept in the mobilization box until required for use.

In the event of mobilization on a large scale, the Government of India will also issue an order to Local Governments and Administrations who will direct Civil officers in charge of districts, and Political Agents or Ministers of Native States under their orders, to issue a proclamation in all towns and villages in their charge, directing all men on leave or furlough (but not reserve men) to rejoin their corps without delay. Officers Commanding corps on receipt of orders to mobilize will at once post to all Civil officers, etc., concerned, India Army Form 152, duly completed. These forms are to be always kept, ready filled in, in the mobilization box. Men proceeding on leave or furlough will be warned that they are to rejoin on hearing this proclamation, even though they may not have received orders to do so from their Commanding Officer.

If a man is on leave, he will in this case rejoin at his own expense, the cost being recovered afterwards in the usual manner and refunded to him.

5. In the event of its being subsequently necessary to call in the reserve men, a similar proclamation will be issued, notices (and warrants if necessary) being posted by the Officer Commanding the dépôt centre battalion, directing reservists to join the dépôt centre battalion at the territorial centre of their group.

N.B.—The proclamation above referred to will only be made when there is no political objection to the adoption of such a course, and never without the orders of the Government of India.
