FURTHER PAPERS.

G.O.	No.	Department.	Date.

ARCOT, INDIA,

12th April 1899.

From

Dr. W. Lubeck,

Special Medical Officer

On Plague Duty,

Arcot, India.

To

The Secretary of State for India,

India Office, Whitehall.

Sir,

I have the honour to submit for your favourable consideration and decision the following statements relating to my appointment by you as Medical Officer on Plague or General duty Madras (India)

1. Before leaving London on the 30th November 1898 I was told by the manager of the Office from which I received and signed my agreement, that in regard to extra charges incurred, Re luggage, embarkation and disembarkation, they would be defrayed by the Madras Government after I reported myself for duty. I was also informed that the doctors who were sent out on Plague Duty before I started from London got this allowance granted, and that there would be no difficulty about mine.

2. Considering that only a few days notice was given in which to pack up and leave London, I had no time to complete the necessary arrangements, and so was constrained to have the greater part of my belongings packed up and sent by the next steamer to that by which I left.

3. These charges together with excess fare for luggage over the Continent came up in Indian Currency to only about Rs.80/-

As shown in the account of the expenses incurred by me during the voyage to India, I have mentioned above as expenses incurred during the voyage were unavoidable and absolutely true and correct.

4. Not for a moment thinking the Madras Government would refuse payment, and not thinking they would demand vouchers for every penny they pay, I in common with the other doctors sent out on Plague duty with me, neglected to preserve any little bills or receipts etc. which we had given us during the voyage to India, but all I can say is that the amounts I have mentioned above as expenses incurred during the voyage were unavoidable and absolutely true and correct.

5. I earnestly beg you will be so good as to direct the payment of the necessary expenses I incurred as detailed above, while coming over to India.

I must at the same time inform you that the sum mentioned above does not at all include immediate personal expenses expenses such as hotel bills, carriage bills etc. etc.

I have, &c.,

(Sd) W. Lubeck,

Special Medical Officer,

Plague Duty,

Arcot,

North Arcot District,

Madras Presidency, India.
