NOTE FOR THE UNDER SECRETARY.

Question XXXVI (a) & (b)

The following reply is submitted.

(a). "The return received by Govt. dated 1st May 1899, shows that 36 medical men are employed on Plague duty in the Prov. Their pay & allowances amount to Rs 13,680 per mensem".

(b). 16 of the temporary medical men employed on plague duty were imported from England.

It is not possible to say how long their services will be retained but the question of reducing the number of temporary ^{English} doctors is now under consideration. The total salary of the 16 doctors mentioned is Rs 8,300 per mensem".

remains.

The order, subject to the management or termination of the services of Plague doctors issued in Public, so that a reference to L. & M. will not be of use. The S.O. has gone to Madras to be induced to 12 ~~and~~ out of a total of 25 doctors are to go - 7 have expressed willingness to resign, & 6 have been asked whether they will accept the reduced remuneration.

The present situation however is confined to the doctors actually employed on plague duty. One of the 25 doctors 16 are not employed, & the draft answer is confined to the latter. Of these 16, eight are to be drafted out.

immediately,
referred, & have been asked to consider their decision -

For the portion of the answer broadcasted
by the H.M., the following might perhaps be taken account of -

"Eight of these doctors will shortly
return to England, & more than will probably follow."

Some of those who have been asked to consider their decision will probably refuse to remain -

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

My dear Stokes,

On a question
for Leg. C. re reduction in number of plague doctors I proposed
a reference to H.M.
forgetting that the file in your office

under medical.

The order dispensing with a number of plague doctors must be about to issue, so so (b)
of the proposed reply
might be added

something like the following: "and order: are about to issue under which the services of several of the plague doctors will shortly be dispensed with.

Yours sincerely
