Zanzibar, March 15, 1899.

Nº 121.

Sir,

A native Indian Christian named S. J. D'Monte, born in Madras, has been for some months past residing in Zanzibar. He first arrived here in September, 1898, and obtained an appointment at the Government printing office, which he subsequently lost through his intemperate habits; he was given a further trial, at my request, but was again dismissed for the same reason; since his last dismissal he has applied at every house of business in Zanzibar but cannot obtain employment, and, being absolutely destitute, I have for some time been supporting him at the rate of six annas a day out of the public funds. He produces testimonials from the National Bank of India, the Inspector of Telegraphs, Madras Railway Company, and Messrs. Lazard and Company, Madras.

Yours faithfully,

to submit this case to the Government of India and to favour me with their instructions as to whether I may repatriate
the British Indian in question, and in what way I am to recover my expenses.

I have the
hon. Basil S. Leve.
H.B. Mr. Consul.
