GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

ORDER—No. 659, Public, dated 16th June 1899.

The Governor in Council resolves to appoint Mr. Murray Hammick, I.C.S., Acting Secretary to Government, Local and Municipal, Educational and Legislative Departments, as Special Commissioner in the districts of Tinnevely and Madura for a period of two months, with a view to the adoption of fitting measures for the suppression of the disturbances which have been recently reported, and for the prompt restoration of peace and order.

2. Mr. Hammick will take the chief direction of affairs throughout the districts in question; the District officers being subject to his control in all matters, and corresponding with him instead of with Government on the subject of the disturbances, copies of their letters being forwarded to Government for information. He will be invested with the powers of a Magistrate of the first-class and will be appointed an Additional District Magistrate for Tinnevely and Madura under section 10 (2) of the Criminal Procedure Code. The Governor in Council grants him full authority in every case where, in his opinion, the public good may require the adoption of prompt or early measures, to act upon his own discretion and responsibility, without a previous reference to Government.

3. Whilst employed on the duties mentioned above, Mr. Hammick will be treated as on deputation and will, under article 98 of the Civil Service Regulations, draw the pay of his permanent appointment together with the maximum deputation allowance admissible under that article. He will be granted the travelling allowance attached to his permanent appointment of Inspector-General of Police.

One does not know how much of these newspaper reports to believe, but considering how junior and inexperienced in district work
Mr Bedford is I cannot help thinking that Mr. Hammick should be appointed Special Commissioner to direct proceedings and report.
Considering Nicholson's report I fear quiet will not be restored without larger measures than have been yet taken
