In G.O. no 198 Rev.

of 29th January 1863, the Board of Rev. was given the power of recognizing temporary appointments made by Collectors of their Assistant to the charge of Superior offices and in G.O. no.

331 Dtd 11th March 1873 the Acet Genl was asked to recognize the Board as the authority competent to make operating appointments under the Rev. G.O.

These orders had for a long time been allowed to fall into desuetude. In April last however the Board appears to have come across them and declared that

Mr A.Y.G. Campbell J.C.S.

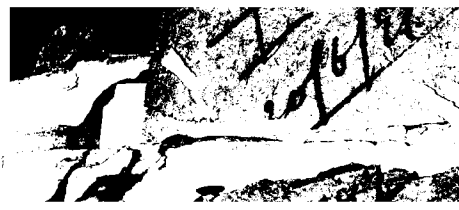

had acted as Sub Collector of the Nellore from the 28th Jan<sup>y</sup> to 1st March 1899. The Acet. seen to whom the matter it proffered reports that was found that its Progs were issued under the powers vested in it by the above G.O.

"under under para 2 of the G.I. Re. in G.O. no 933 Pub. dt 18.3.93 "the appointment of Mr Campbell to act as Sub Collector, Nellore, should have been made by Govt." The Pub: Dept now proposed to communicate this report of the A.C. to the Board and to confirm the Progs issued by the latter, and to require that similar cases should <sup>for the future</sup> be submitted for the orders of Govt. It enquires whether the R.D. has any objection to this being done.

2 It is submitted that so far as the R.D. is concerned there appears to be no objection to cancelling the orders of 1863 and 1873. The communication of the A.C.'s report to the Board, however, seems to be <sup>new</sup> to objection <sup>22.5.99</sup> orders quoted by 1 only to the forgetting of appointment of of uncovenanted officers" <sup>8)</sup> and are therefore apparently not to the point. Art 176 of the C.R., incidentally referred to in the Pub. Office note, refers to the <sup>authority who should</sup> ~~decision~~ of the question of <sup>the</sup> allowances admissible for the charge of the current duties of an officer and does not specify the authority who is to make the appointments

 - whether for <sup>such</sup> ~~the~~ charge or to act in a vacancy. It does not therefore <sup>seem to</sup> cover the field covered by the orders of 1863 and 1873. The best course in these circumstances appears to be to formally cancel these orders and to confirm the B.P. already issued.

<sup>10/10/99</sup> <sup>day</sup>
 It would appear that Art 176 of the C.R. & Govt Res of 1893 do not prohibit the exercise by the B2 of the power given it by the Order of 1873. There is no objection to these orders being ~~made~~ <sup>made</sup> now

<sup>2/11/99</sup>
<sup>10/10/99</sup>

being cancelled. But if the Govt is disposed to allow the B2 to exercise these powers there seems no reason why they should be cancelled.

 I see no objection to their cancellation. (Redeep)

There are, I think, some papers in the L.O. that should be returned to the Board of Revenue (A.R.) — original correspondence received from them. They are all printed and so we do not require them. The Board does not say anything about their return. As they are original papers recd. from the Board, they are, sure, to require to be called for.
