GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

Read—the following paper :—

Extract from the Proceedings of the Government of India in the Home Department (Medical), dated Simla, 6th June 1899, No. 938--1003.

Read—

Home Department Resolution No. $\frac{17}{481-494}$, dated the 31st October 1884.

Resolution.—With the resolution mentioned in the preamble the Government of India published a list of the appointments available for officers of the Indian Medical Service, both Covenanted and Uncovenanted, in the Bengal Presidency. These appointments were divided into three classes: (i) Appointments to be held by Covenanted officers only, and to which Uncovenanted officers were not to be posted; (ii) Appointments to be held either by Covenanted or Uncovenanted officers, as might be found most convenient, it being understood that no Uncovenanted officers should be appointed to any post even in that list until it had been ascertained from the Government of India that no Covenanted officer was available for it; and (iii) Collateral charges.

2. Many changes have taken place since 1884 and a revised list of superior medical appointments in India has therefore been prepared in consultation with local Governments and Administrations and is now published for general information.

Order—Ordered, that a copy be forwarded to all local Governments and Administrations.

Also that a copy be forwarded to the

No 988-1003

Extract from the Proceedings of the Government of India in the Home Department (Medical),—under date, Simla, the 6th June 1899.

READ—

Home Department Resolution No. $\frac{17}{491-494}$, dated the 31st October 1884.

RESOLUTION.

WITH the Resolution mentioned in the preamble the Government of India published a list of the appointments available for officers of the Indian Medical Service, both Covenanted and Uncovenanted, in the Bengal Presidency. These appointments were divided into three classes—(I) Appointments to be held by Covenanted officers only, and to which Uncovenanted officers were not to be posted; (II) Appointments to be held either by Covenanted or Uncovenanted officers, as might be found most convenient, it being understood that no Uncovenanted officers should be appointed to any post even in that list until it had been ascertained from the Government of India that no Covenanted officer was available for it; and (III) Collateral charges.

2. Many changes have taken place since 1884 and a revised list of superior medical appointments in India has therefore been prepared in consultation with Local Governments and Administrations and is now published for general information.

ORDER.—Ordered, that a copy be forwarded to all Local Governments and Administrations.
