promoted.

2. With reference to para 66 (a) Army Regs. India, 1889 Vol IX (Provisional issue), I am to state that the gentlemen above named are not members of the Madras Railway Volunteers, but that as they are officers of the Madras Railway Company, there appears to be no objection to their appl. as Commissioned Officers, without first being enlisted as Volunteers.

Reasons Reason and Motive
 One not at present members of the Corps, but back with to join as Commissioned Officers Their nomination has been submitted in accordance with the practice followed by my predecessors, and myself during the last 14 years

Showed however the strict wording of the Regulations be now insisted upon these gentlemen will be enlisted as Volunteers. Though I am not of ~~an~~ opinion as a matter of official discipline, this course is an advisable one.

NOTE FOR THE

2nd ant.
Is there any precedent for this kind of app't? Para 66(6) of the Regulations says that in the case of railway Volunteer Corps officers, other than Commandants & field officers, will be nominated by the commanding officer from among the members of the Corps, & does not apparently allow officers to be elected from non-members, even tho' they are officers in the Eng. Dept. of the Railway

NOTE FOR THE Asst. Secy.

With reference to your note of 20.6.99 below, papers were called for from the Under Secy but those sent up are not direct precedents.

The paper flagged D, has no direct bearing on the present question.

The red ink note by Mr. Genl. Medford (then Secy to Govt. King's Coll) dated 6.11.94, on the paper flagged C, is directly to the point, but it is an expression of opinion, & not a Govt. order. It shows however that the point is not new.

The paper flagged B, is not a direct precedent. It relates to the app't. to the Corps, as a Command Officer, of a gentleman who did not

The 5738 inf. of 15.10.85 (Paragraph A) permits the appt. of an Officer not connected with the Ranking to a Company of Rg. Volunteers, but this is not the point now at issue.

In minute No III
in the present current, Lt. Col. Phipps says that the nomination of Messrs Austen & Marsh is in accordance with the practice followed by himself & his predecessors for the last 14 years (i.e. since the formation of the Corps) there must therefore be many direct precedents, but it is possible that the point whether Gentlemen nominated ^{for Company} were or were not members of the Corps was not raised.

I submit a revised draft Ld. & letter, in case it is not considered worth while to delay the file by sending it - back to London for further consideration & presentation.
