From

Dr. G. Kullback

To

The Chief Secretary to Government, Madras.

Sir,

I have the honour to submit that, owing to the Government's refusal to grant hill allowance to my establishment, the assistants are discontented and anxious to seek appointments elsewhere, while the peons have openly declared their intention of leaving the service. In addition to the pecuniary losses which are experienced by the whole establishment, the peons feel the absence of warm clothes, those which I purchased for them in 1897 being now in rags, and the assistants justly complain of having to work in a narrow, badly lighted and ill ventilated office, the only one which could be rented at the sanctioned rate of Rs. 20 per mensem after I had to give up my house in April 1898. I think the Government will agree with me that some steps ought to be taken at once in order to prevent the whole or partial loss of my trained staff. As hill allowance has been refused, the only remaining alternative is to move the office back to Ponnagalore, where it has worked satisfactorily for ten years. A second necessity is the renting of a decent building, a permanent

Submitted for orders.

2. Dr. Hultsch, the Govt. Theologist, asks that Govt. having decided that it cannot sanction the grant of hill allowances to his establishment, he may be permitted to retransfer his office to Bangalore.

3. The circumstances under which Dr. Mullisch's office finds itself at Octadecanum are these. In the agreement entered into in 1936 between the Secretary of State and Dr. Mullisch, it was stipulated that Dr. Mullisch should be allowed to spend the hot weather at a hill station, to be selected by Govt. It was further stated that Govt. would provide him with free quarters at the selected hill station.

4. At the time of Mr. Bull's death,

~~My dear Sir,~~ A building of this description will ~~not be~~ available at Bangalore for less than ~~Rs 1000~~ ~~per annum~~. I hope the Government will find it possible to sanction this amount. While I had to pay the removal of the office to Cotacmand from my pocket, its removal to Bangalore, which does not benefit me personally, but involves a sacrifice on my part, might be carried out at the public expense. Finally I would recommend that my Dict. Assistant, who is a thoroughly reliable and trustworthy officer, might ~~have~~ independent charge of the Bangalore office until my return to duty in September 1900. At any rate I would advise not to place the establishment under the Superintendent, Archaeological Survey, as I am convinced that this arrangement would lead to differences of opinion, but rather under the Collector or the Treasury Officer.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

L. Herbert.

contemplated that he would work by himself and would have no office. The question what should become of his office during his absence at a hill station did not therefore arise.

5. Dr. Hultsch when he joined apparently did so at Madras. The period during which he might reside at a hill station was fixed by Govt. at three months, but the hill station to which he might go was not fixed. In 1337 however Dr. Hultsch himself apparently fixed Bangalore as his hill station, ^{for in} ~~from~~ the correspondence in G.O.No. 581, Public, dated 19th April 1337 he asked to be granted house-rent instead of free quarters at Bangalore for three months in the year. House rent at the rate of Rs. 50 per mensem for three months in each year was granted.

6. In the meanwhile Dr. Hultsch had been given an office consisting of one Assistant and a peon (Vide G.O. 160, Public, dated 1st February 1337) and this establishment was subsequently located permanently at Bangalore, ~~for in~~ in G.O.No. 744, Financial, dated 24th Oct. 1390, Dr. Hultsch was permitted to draw an allowance in consideration of his providing office accommodation in his own house.

7. From 1390 on Dr. Hultsch seems to have regarded Bangalore as his headquarters. He makes no further allusion to the question of his being allowed three months at a hill station. In 1896 however he applied for permission to move his office permanently to Octacamaund. He did this mainly on personal grounds. He pointed out that Bangalore can hardly be called a hill station, and he apparently found residence there during the hot weather an unsatisfactory substitute for the three months on the hills to which he was entitled. Govt. sanctioned the transfer of the office on the condition that no extra expense to Govt. should be involved. Dr. Multasch thereupon moved the office, meeting the cost of removal, and the expense of providing his menial establishment with warm clothing out of his own pocket.

8. Since then he has on two occasions come up to Govt. asking for concessions to members of his staff in consideration of their being located on the hills. Govt. has on both occasions declined to go back on its stipulation that the removal of the office should not be attended with any additional expense to the State (Vide G.O.No.231, Public, dated 17-3-97 and G.O.No.1225, dated 27th September 1993).

9. Dr. Multasch now says that he is in danger of losing his Assistant and peons if the office is retained at Octacamaund under present conditions and he suggests its transfer to Bangalore. Dr. Multisch having now been permanently engaged, it seems desirable that his office should be placed on as satisfactory a basis as possible. The men who work under Dr. Multisch have now attained special knowledge and they would, no doubt, be difficult to replace. In the circumstances it is submitted that it is in the interest of Govt. that they should be retained and the only way of ensuring this result is to retransfer the office to Bangalore it is for consideration whether that proposal should not be accepted. Dr. Multisch's presence at the Headquarters of Govt. is not necessary.

10. The only objections to the retransfer appear to be (1) that arrangements have now been made for providing Dr. Multisch with an office in the old Jail Buildings at Ootacamund, and (2) that unless Dr. Multisch is made to pay the cost of retransfer from his own pocket, the move will entail some expenditure of Govt. money.

11 With regard to (1) there would probably be no difficulty in allotting to some one else the space set apart for Dr. Multisch. As lately as 14th June 1899 it was stated by the P.W.D. that nothing had as yet been done towards preparing the building for his reception (vide G.O. 670, Public, dated 17th June 1899).

The expense will be small & will be covered by house rules.

What was the cost of Hill allowances to?
As Dr. H. is now permanent the conditions are somewhat changed.
There is no one to look after Dr. H. at Bangalore if it were necessary to do so.

Aty. 6.7.29.

I think Dr. Hultsch might be allowed to make Bangalore his quarters & to have his office there as he is himself of his 3 months at Ooty if he wished. Accommodation for his office or not to pay him the allowance here at Bangalore

12. With regard to the cost of the transfer, Dr. Hultsch points out that while the move to Ootacamund was carried out for his benefit, the retransfer would be made for the public interest, and would involve a sacrifice on his part. It is submitted that this argument is reasonable. If the retransfer is permitted, Dr. Hultsch might be told that he must accept residence at Bangalore as residence at a hill station, as provided for in his agreement.

13. Dr. Hultsch also asks for an allowance for office rent. It has been been pointed out he originally provided accommodation in his own house at Bangalore, and he drew an allowance (Rs. 20) therefore. He continued the same arrangement at Ootacamund, but when he went on leave it was necessary to find other quarters. Govt.
saved by this arrangement, but as he does not apparently propose to continue it when he returns it seems necessary that the full amount necessary to provide the office with separate accommodation should be sanctioned. There is no budget provision, but the transfer ^{to Bangalore} if sanctioned, need not take effect till next year, the present arrangement continuing till then.
