Copy of Letter from the Chief Assistant Surgeon D. J. Hadden to the Secretary Surgeon General with the Govt. of Spain
No. 23, dated 2nd July 1897.

In forwarding the enclosed Indian Certificate granted by Captain Leebart and the President of the Medical Board hereon I have no more to request you will be so good as to mention the leave herein recommended as I find that the recent ill treatment and injustice I have been subject to in and by being placed in the District Jail here is absolutely no ground whatever by persons who have seen and still less known little or nothing of me except, perhaps that I was lately making some very unbecoming advances in public, has caused so much a nervous strain that I feel that I cannot conscientiously resume duty unless I be given the benefit of long leave and a decided change of habit on the entire of the three months I intend applying for at least a year's furlough to Europe on Medical grounds.

The conclusion I have that no statement is made by Lab that tells us we are in a happy situation. If we are in a on the medical certificate ignorantly given by Captain Gifford whom I have met on only 3 occasions and that on business

Being you will kindly give my case due consideration and justice after making a thorough inquiry into it

THE

Government Public Department

SIR,

I have the honor to report for the information of Government that Civil Assistant Surgeon M. J. Madden lately in medical charge of the East Coast Railway, having suddenly become insane, was sent to Madras under an escort and admitted into the Lunatic Asylum for observation on the 4th May 1899.

2. On the 20th June the Sub-Commissioner of the Asylum made out his case recommending he should get three months' leave with effect from the date M. J. Madden relinquished charge of his appointment and also handed him over to the care of his wife until he is able to resume his work.

3. The case of Surgeon Madden was accordingly brought before the Board and considered by them.

granted by the Superintendent and a copy of the Proceedings was given to him to be attached to his application for leave.

4. I enclose for the information of Government a copy of Mr. Madden's letter applying for leave which clearly shows the unsoundness of his mind.

5. The leave has been granted according to the recommendation of the Medical Board and arrangements will be made near it expiring to bring him again before a Medical Board with a view to ascertain his fitness or otherwise for further service.
