FROM

W. O. HORNE, Esq.,

Collector,

Vizagapatam District.

TO

The Honorable Mr. J. Stokes,

Chief Secretary to Government,

Public Department,

Madras.

SIR,

Referring to G.O. nos. 722 & 734 Public, I have the honor to report that I delivered the G.V. Jaggann Observatory and its appurtenant to the Plaintiff Mr. D. V. Jaggann on the 14th instant. All the property - instruments, furniture &c. belonging to Government was removed from the observatory before it was handed over to the Plaintiff.

I noted the Assistant General to return the Government Pro: note of the nominal value of three lacs, forming the endowment of the observatory for delivery to the Plaintiff in accordance with the deed. He has informed me that the proceeds which are now in the form of stock certificates were sent to the (Public Debt) office, Calcutta, for conversion into Pro: notes and that they will be sent to me on receipt by him.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. A. B. Kumar

for Collector.
