SUBMITTED to Government.

2. This is a case
in which it was distinctly to the interest of Government that the Officer should
proceed fully equipped
and be in a position
to start work at once.
He ought like others to have been ordered to
proceed fully equipped
and it was I consider

an omission in my office that he was not so
ordered.

3. He could not
procure a horse and
tent anywhere but in Madras and it would have caused unnecessary
and harmful delay,
had he marched his
horse and tent up
leisurely.
