Sir

I beg to report that although I hold enquiry until now I find no proper evidence to prove that such a particular man had set up fire and destroyed the store, offices & Telegraph rooms and that I am still trying to find out the person.

Yours obediently

Sir,

Referring to G. O. No 248 R, 15th February, 1890, I have to inform you that the Chief Engineer has received a report from Mr Buyers as follows:-
"The men who were arrested on suspicion
"were discharged as they could not be identified
"- fired although the Police were of opinion that
"there was a strong case against them."

I am,
Sir,
