Sir,

Referring to your letter No 1255, 4th November, 1890, and to para 2 of the letter from the Government of India in which it is shown that His Excellency the Governor General in Council will accord fresh sanction where it is necessary to revise a Risk Note form, I beg to be informed whether it is intended to prepare a Risk Note suitable for the case in which a sender is willing, in consideration of being relieved from the full charges to which he is liable or for other cause to release an Administration from the liability for Elephants, sheep, goats, dogs, and other animals imposed by Section 73 of the Indian Railways Act No IX of 1890.

I am,
Sir

Your most Obedient Servant

William Pett
