My dear Colonel

I am desired to send you the enclosed telegram concerning the alignment of the East-Coast Railway. His Excellency thinks a reference should be made to the Collector on the subject. Will you very kindly deal with it in the usual way.

Yours sincerely

J. B. C.

Colonel H. A. R.

MADRAS,

20-11-1890

My dear Sirs

Your letter of the 19th which I put up for ready reference together with the memorial of the people of Sallapudy -

I have marked in the enclosed map the line proposed by the memorialists in red chalk. It will be seen that it crosses the river 16 miles at least above Rajmundry and leaves the Canals altogether and is about 20

Madras. 21st Nov: 90

My dear Colonel

I am desired to return the map you kindly sent, and to say that His Excellency agrees with you in thinking that the proposed alignment is out of the question.
He would be glad if you would, none the less, kindly circulate the paper.

Yours Sincerely

Colonel T. Gracey R.S. J.R.S.
