Read the following paper :—

From the Agent and Manager, His Highness the Nizam's Guaranteed State Railways Company (Limited), to the Consulting Engineer for Railways, Madras, dated Secunderabad, 3rd January 1893, No. 17 W.

The Engineer-in-Chief, East Coast Railway, informs me that he intends opening a station between Bezvada and Gannavaram at the 8th mile, called Mustabad, and another between Nuzvid and Ellore, called Balparu, 3 miles from Nuzvid, and to alter the name of Shalerol to Shabrol.

I think he also wants to open a temporary siding between Pentapadu and Nidadavól and proposes to call it as Palapadu. Will you please approve of the spelling of the above names as soon as possible, as there is scarcely any time to prepare the rate lists and to print the required tickets.

Please reply by wire.
