Intimation to Postal Officials of opening of new lines of railway, etc.

Simla, the 19th January 1893.

SIR,

It having been brought to the notice of the Government of India that in some instances timely intimation of the opening of new lines of railway or of extensions of existing lines and of changes to be made in the timing of trains carrying mails has not been given to the Postal Department, I am directed to invite special attention to Government of India circular No. VI Railway, dated the 13th March 1889, and to request that you will again impress on the railway administrations under the control of the Government of Madras the necessity for strictly observing the procedure laid down in paragraphs 2 and 3 of the circular, so that the several postal officers concerned may receive the earliest possible intimation of changes in, or additions to, the train service.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Yours most obedient Servant,

No. 405
3. The Government of India would at the same time, in the interests of the public, impress on Railway Administrations the necessity for giving the several Postal Officers concerned the earliest possible intimation of changes in, or additions to, the train service, because such changes affect not only the postal arrangements in the immediate vicinity of the line of railway, but also the several postal lines in connection therewith.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,
