Read the following paper :—

From the Agent, South Indian Railway, dated Trichinopoly, 17th September 1892, No. 1396.

Submitted for the orders of Government.

2. Owing to re-arrangement of the traffic divisions on the South Indian Railway, it is found necessary to locate the head-quarters of an Assistant Traffic Manager at Tanjore, where, owing to the paucity of houses, the Assistant Traffic Manager Mr. Nico is unable to obtain a suitable residence at a less rental than Rs. 60 a month.

3. The Company is not bound to provide house accommodation for any of its employes, but, at an official meeting No. 1 of 1894, it was recorded that, when house accommodation is provided for any of the superior officers of a railway, the rent shall be assessed at 6 per cent. on the original cost of the building and permanent additions thereto subject to a limitation of one-tenth of the occupant's salary.

4. Mr. Nico now applies for the difference between 10 per cent. of his salary, i.e., Rs. 50, and the rent under reference being paid by the Company, and the Agent, South Indian Railway, requests sanction, pending the construction by the Company of house accommodation at Tanjore for an Assistant Traffic Manager, to the disbursement, as a charge against Revenue, of Rs. 10 per mensem.

5. A State Railway might, under similar circumstances, with the sanction of the local Government, rent a house for Rs. 60 per mensem and credit the rental with 10 per cent. of the officer's salary, which in this case is Rs. 50.

6. The orders of Government are solicited.

ORDER—dated 14th October 1892, No. 2457 R., Public Works.

The proposal that the railway should rent a house for Rs. 60 per mensem and credit the rental with 10 per cent. of the officer's salary, which, in Mr. Nico's case, is Rs. 50, is sanctioned.
