I do not know if the sanctioning of the conveyance allowance will do 8th assisted any good, as he is going on leave & I hear may not return, but I think it would be the right thing to obtain the sanction for the Medical Officer in his for the time being or for his substitute.

A.M. is trying to get a substitute for 375/- or thereabouts. & the 50/- conveyance allowance would be an inducement to a candidate.

I have read the Rules referred to by India and I don't see why the application may not be treated as coming under Classification (III) of para 5 of the Resolution

I think a very good case has been made out for a conveyance allowance to the Medical Officer of the Madras Railway. He cannot possibly get about to do his daily work, without having to travel great distances, & I think that a grant under Rule 6 - class III is perfectly justified.

I think the case fully needed para 6(v) 1. & that the rules conveyance allowance at all.

I agreed to the application being sent on for order as the Board approved it, but not to its being recommended.

I do not think the Presidency

As the Medical Officer does not get a big salary (Rs 650) I think Rs 50/- specially
