SIR,

With reference to your letter of 31st January 1893, I have the honour to inform you that I have appointed Dr Currie to act for Dr. Inotid during the absence of the latter on furlough on a salary of Rs 350 per mensem, this being the lowest sum named by any of the applicants for the post.

This salary exceeds the half pay of the Medical Officer by Rs 25 and I request that the sanction of Government may be communicated to this temporary increase to the cost of the Medical Department.

Dr Currie will take charge from Dr. Inotid tomorrow the 22nd instant.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

EXAMINER'S REPLY.

Dr. Ansted's salary is Rs 650/- per mensem 1/2 of which he will draw while on furlough.

It would be permissible with the approval of the Board, to pay his locum tenens the balance of salary viz. Rs 325 with the local Government's approval, as however the salary proposed is Rs 350 the sanction of the government of India is necessary.

to

Government

2. In January last,
the Agent and Manager, Madras Railway, reported that Dr. Austin the Company's medical officer had applied for 12 months furlough, and enquired whether Government would allow the District Surgeon Royapuram to take up the Company's work. In reply, the Agent was informed that the

Served

Services of the latter could not be spared and that arrangements should be made to secure the services of an outsider.

3 The Agent and Manager, accordingly advertised for a duly qualified European Practitioner in the Madras, Bombay and Calcutta newspapers; and now reports that he has appointed Dr. Currie with effect from the 22nd March 1893, on a salary of Rs 350 per mensem this being the lowest sum named by any of the applicants for the post.

4 Dr. Austen's salary being Rs 650 per mensem there is only a balance of Rs 325 available to pay his bonum tenus and as the salary proposed for for Dr. Currie is Rs 25 more than this sum, it is requested that the sanction of the Government of India may be obtained to the temporary increase in the cost of the medical department, subject to the Board's approval which has been applied for.
