Your Order No: 21 R dated 11th January 1894.

Sir,

I have the honor to point out that when sanction was asked for the Carriage of a horse from Secunderabad to Bezwada belonging to Mr. Oddie it was overlooked that he was on his way to join an appointment on his return from furlough and was not therefore entitled to draw travelling allowance of any kind.

2. The Examiner has pointed out that under these circumstances the charge would be irregular. The sanction accorded by you may therefore be cancelled.

I have the honor to be
