Read the following papers :—

From the Agent and Manager, Madras Railway, to the Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 17th November 1893, No. 5805/998.

I understand from the first and third paragraphs of your No. 859 of the 4th instant that you are now prepared to recommend the Government to sanction a sum of Rs. 7,540 towards the construction of the church it is proposed to erect at Perambur for the Company's employes and their families—the sum to be charged to the Capital Account of the Madras Railway.

2. I will accept the responsibility of securing the sum of Rs. 884 referred to in the second paragraph of your letter, and I shall now be much obliged if you will formally convey to me the necessary sanction of Government.

3. I shall also be glad to hear from you that the land applied for in this office letter No. 468 of 1st June 1893 can be made over to the Company that the erection of the church building may not be delayed.

From the Agent and Manager, Madras Railway, to the Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 22nd February 1894, No. 5805/137.

In compliance with the request contained in your letter No. 295 of the 26th January 1894, I have the honour to forward herewith the estimate for the proposed church at Perambúr, and to request that the formal sanction of Government to the work may be conveyed to me at an early date.

2. The sum which it is proposed to expend from the Company's funds Rs. 7,540 sanctioned in your letter No. 914 of the 29th November last, but it was understood from the conversation that passed at the last meeting that the sanction of the Local Government was necessary and I therefore now apply for it.

ORDER—dated 2nd March 1894, No. 129 R., Public Works.

The estimate, amounting to Rs. 11,384, chargeable in the proportion of Rs. 7,540 to Capital and Rs. 3,844 to Public contribution, for the construction of the church required at Perambúr for the Company's employés and their families, is sanctioned.

2. This sanction has been registered as No. 34 B. of 1893-94.
