Sir,

Your No. 1155 of 13th December last.
 In April 1891 I received a petition from the village munsifs, Curram, and Mirasidars of Semimalai, Channamangalam, and Sengottai, in which they asked for a station to be opened near their villages. They wrote "it is twelve miles from Paset to Erode and in the middle of these two stations there is a village named Semimalai from which there is a road East to West &c."

Subsequently, on one of our half yearly inspections we stopped the train at this place, and we were told by the people whom met us the name of the village was Semimalai.

I see no objection however to the new station being called Chavadi Palayam if the Collector of the District considers that to be a better suited name.

I have the honor to be,
 Sir,

Yours most obedient servant,
 J. H. Meynier,
 for Agent.
