2. C.Kristnasami Naidu was reemployed on the permanent establishment of Government on 14th. September 1982 from which date up to 31st. December 1985 he was in receipt of his pension in addition to pay, the sum total of his pension and pay having been less than Rs. 50 per mensem, the pay drawn by him immediately preceding his retirement. From 1st. January 1986, he was appointed as draftsman 2nd. class, and was, up to the date of his retirement from your office on 30th. September 1993, in receipt of Rs. 35 per mensem the minimum pay, his pension for this period being reduced by one rupee i.e. from Rs. 13 to Rs. 15 to bring the total of his pay and pension equal to his former pay (Rs. 50 per mensem).

3. Under Civil Service Regulations article 587 A, the pension admissible to Kristnasami Naidu for his subsequent service from 14th. September 1882 to - 30th. September 1883 is subject to the following limitation, namely that the capital value of the pension shall not be greater than the difference between the value of the pension that would be admissible on 30th. September 1883, if the two periods of service were ^{combined} continued, and the value of the pension already granted for previous service.

4. The total service of Kristnasami Naidu will under the above ruling, amount to over 25 years service for which a pension not exceeding Rs.17½ per mensem (or Rs.1½ per mensem in addition to the pension of Rs.13 already granted) equal to one-half of his average emoluments will be admissible to him.

5. Kristnasami Naidu now represents that if he had drawn the increments of his grade (draftsman 2nd. Class), regularly from 1st. January 1887, his average emoluments for the purpose of calculating the pension admissible for the ~~continued~~ ^{combined} periods of service would be increased and that as he did not claim the increments in ignorance of rules, he may be considered to have drawn them and his pension calculated accordingly. If Kristnasami Naidu's request is complied with, he will be eligible to a pension not exceeding Rs.23-14-0 (not as stated by him and entered in

Rs.17-8-0 per mensem ordinarily admissible under Civil Service Regulations article 587 A.

3. Orders of Government are now requested as to whether Kristnasami Naidu may be considered to have drawn the increments regularly from 1st. January 1887 and if so, whether the amount (Rs. 855) may be debited to "State Outlay of Guaranteed Railways" and credited to "Civil Department". On receipt of orders of Government on this point, the pension application of Kristnasami Naidu will be completed and forwarded to Government in the Pension Department for sanction.

C. Kristnasami Raide late draftsman in this office was retired on 30th September 1893. His pensionable service consisted of two portions, the first of 15 years, 9 months, 1 day, the second of 11 years and 16 days.
For the first period of service a compensation pension of Rs 16 was granted to him. During his second period of service he was promoted draftsman 2nd Class from 1st Jan 1886 and from that date his compensation pension was reduced to Rs 15 a month, as otherwise his total emoluments Rs 16 pension ^{plus} and Rs 3 salary, would have exceeded Rs 50.

Madras may be considered to have drawn his increments as draftsman on due dates, and his pension papers reported upon accordingly. The necessary adjustment

2. Accep. of the

Consulting Engineer to Railways
Madras

the pay drawn by him immediately before his first retirement. As a 2nd class draftsman he was entitled to a progressive salary rising from Rs 35 to Rs 50 by annual increments of Rs 3 per annum, subject to the proviso that his total emoluments did not exceed Rs 50 a month. He should consequently have drawn the salary of his class, the ^{incremental} amount of pension being decreased by the same amount that his salary rose by plus so much of his pension as brought his aggregate emoluments to Rs 50 per mensem. Through ignorance however he continued to draw the minimum salary of a 2nd class draftsman and Rs 15 pension. The result of this has been to decrease his present retiring pension by Rs 6.6

2. The sanction of Govt is now solicited to his ^{receiving} a pension of Rs 23.14, the amount to which he would be entitled had he drawn total emoluments consisting of incremental salary, and correspondingly decreasing pension. If this is approved an adjustment of Rs 555 should be made by debiting "State Railway Guaranteed Railways Fund."

& notice informed -
It seems strange that the Audit did not point out, that the draftsman by drawing his increments and decreasing his pension, would have entitled him to a better pension than that which he now obtains - 17/1

Sir,
In confirming the Proceedings of the Government of Madras in connection with the increments of C. Kristnasami Naidu, late Draftsman, 2nd. class, a copy of which accompanied your docket No. 60 R. dated 26th January last, I am directed to invite a reference to Article 166 of the Civil Service Regulations, from which it will be seen that increments are not claimable by rule, but are granted only at the discretion of the head of the office.
