Dear Sir,

Repetition of Code initials of Stations
Your endorsement No. 5424 of 14-12-93

The name of Rajapore station on the Eastern Bengal State Railway, having with effect from the 1st January 1894 been changed to Benggari, with Code initials B.G.G. the same as those approved by Government for Balaghat station (B.G.F.R.) on the 17th November 1893, the Traffic Superintendent of the Eastern Bengal State Railway Calcutta was addressed with a view to an alteration in the Code initials of Benggari being brought about, and the following reply was received:-

"As Balaghat station has not yet been opened for traffic some other Code initials might well be fixed for it."

B.B.T. have now been suggested as the code initials for Balaghat.

Will you kindly obtain the sanction of Government to the proposed change.

Sir,

17/4/94

With reference to your endorsement
No 1127 of the 7th Instant, on copy of a letter from the Resident in Mysore to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras No. 1118/2688 dated 27th March 1894, I have the honour to state that the code initials B.G.A. suggested in the second paragraph of the above letter for the Balaghat Station are already allotted to Baliaghata on the East Indian Railway. It is therefore suggested that the letters B.L.Q. may be adopted instead.

I have the honour to be,
