The Agent and Manager
My dear Sir,

Your N^o. 362 of the 20th instant 7223

Fitter R. A. Johnson was lent together with some 12 or 15 other men, to the South Indian Railway, as stated in the application for gratuity for 15 months in consequence of an application made to us by the Locomotive Superintendent of that line to the effect that he was temporarily short of hands and wished us to help him in this way. It was clearly understood when the men were sent to Negapatam that they were only lent temporarily and so soon as Mr. Brighton had done with them they returned to Perambur Works and were re-engaged.

Although no doubt technically therefore the transfer of Johnson to

Johnson to the South Indian Railway made a break in his service, under the circumstances explained I trust it may be possible for Government to allow his service with the South Indian Railway to count for the gratuity or at any rate not to count against him.

Yours faithfully
W. E. Phipps
Loco. Superintendent
