SEPTEMBER.

Driver John Brown

The remittance by the Agent, South Indian Railway, to the Board of Directors of the cost of a second-class passage to Madras for the intended wife of —, sanctioned on certain conditions.

South Indian Railway.

Extract from letter from the Managing Director, to the Agent, dated London 3rd August 1894, No. 136.

Sanctioned passage for the intended wife of Government Driver John Brown.

The Board has sanctioned the grant of one half the passage money to India in this case and the advance of the other half as recommended in your letter No. 330, and on the conditions as to repayment laid down in Board's letter No. 449 June 1st 1883. When a similar grant was made in favor of the intended wife of Driver Hansen. Following the precedent in that case when these respective proportions were allowed, you are now authorised to make application to Government for the cost of a passage to Madras for the intended wife of Driver John Brown, and to remit the amount to this Country when the necessary arrangements will be made.
