From the Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 21st March 1892, No. 249.

Extract from the note by the Examiner of Railway Accounts, dated 16th March 1892.

I would suggest also, in order to save a large number of petty references to the Local Government, that the Agent of the South Indian Railway be vested with the powers of a manager of a State Railway in all matters, other than furlough and pension, relating to State subordinate establishment lent to the company, subject to the previous certificate of the Government Examiner at Trichinopoly and to the subsequent record of all such transactions in the minutes of official meeting.

Submitted to Government with recommendation that the proposal of the Examiner of Railway Accounts, Madras, be sanctioned.

Order—dated 1st April 1892, No. 853 R., Public Works.

The proposal of the Examiner, Guaranteed Railway Accounts, will be forwarded for the sanction of the Government of India.
