AUGUST.

Institute at Perambur

Estimate of Rs. 7,732 for a proposed additional room to the —, Madras Railway, sanctioned.

Extract from a letter from the Locomotive Superintendent to the Agent and Manager No. a ^{1316/502} dated 27 June 1894

I write to ask if any thing can be done towards the provision of a more commodious and convenient building for the use of the Institute at Perambur.

2. As you are aware, the Institute is now located in an old bungalow which was purchased from the late Boiler maker Honeman Fisher of this Department. The bungalow consists of a centre room or hall in which the 2 Billiard tables are located a long room on the South side used for a Reading Room and two small rooms on the north which are used as Staff quarters for the use of up country Men or others who may from time to time be called to Perambur on duty. The books are stored partly in a small bath room and partly in almirahs in the Reading Room.

3. The whole place is exceedingly crowded and inconvenient and I think for a large community such as we have here a larger and more attractive building is a necessity.

4. I believe the bungalow itself is in a bad state of repair, having been built only, and it is a question whether whether it is worth spending much money upon it, and if this is so, an entirely new building should probably be constructed. If, however, this is not the case and it is considered the building is worth using, I would suggest that the following alterations should be made:-

- (a) A new Billiard room to be built either attached or in close proximity to the existing building large enough to hold two full sized tables comfortably.
- (b) The present Billiard room to be fitted up as a Reading Room and the present Reading Room to be converted to a Book Room and Librarian's Office.
- (c) The two rooms used for staff quarters to be thrown open and used as one room.
- (d) The front Verandah to be extended and used as a smoking room and lounge.
