Certain alterations proposed by the Agent in the timing of Nos. 123 and 144 trains between Villupuram and Pondicherry, sanctioned.

No. 113

South Indian Railway Co., Ltd.

AGENT'S OFFICE,

TRICHINOPOLY, 2nd Feby 1895.

From

The AGENT,

SOUTH INDIAN RAILWAY,

To

The CONSULTING ENGINEER FOR RAILWAYS,

MADRAS.

Sir,

The Traffic Manager has reported to me as follows.

"The night trains on the Pondichery Branch are not keeping good time, partly in consequence of the way they are at present timed owing to the running of the main line trains with which they form connections, and partly in consequence of the time allowed at Pondichery for engine purposes not being sufficient and occasional delays at Kandamangalam with the train from Pondichery waiting for the Customs Authorities. The trains should therefore be allowed more time to ensure better working."

The following statement shows the present train times, and the train times proposed

Present and proposed timing of Nos. 123 and 144 trains between Villupuram and Pondichery.

Train	Stations	No. 144				Train	Stations	No. 123
		Present	Proposed	Present	Proposed			Present	Proposed	Present	Proposed

	Pondichery	0.20			0.15	5 1/2	Villupuram &	2.45	-	2.41	-

Will you please obtain the sanction of Government to this alteration being made.
