NOTE on the six months' estimate of the Madras-Ennur Railway (Revenue receipts and expenses).

Madras-Ennur Railway, Revenue receipts and expenses.—The budget estimate was passed on the assumption that the line would be opened for traffic on the 1st June last; but as it is now anticipated that it will not be opened before 1st February 1896, and as it will be worked by the Madras Railway Company and the transactions adjusted half-yearly, no provision has been made in the six months' estimate.

2. The figures proposed for 1896-97 represent the probable transactions for the periods February to June and July to December 1896.

Note on the six months estimates of the Madr. Ennore Railway, Revenue receipts and expenses, and Calicut. Cannanore and Shoranur. Cochin Surveys for the year 1895-96.

1. Madr. Ennore Railway Revenue receipts and expenses. The Budget Estimate was passed on the assumption that the line would be opened for traffic on the 1st June last, but as it is now anticipated that it will not be opened before 1st February 1896 and as it will be worked by the Madras Railway Company and the transactions adjusted half-yearly, no provision has been made in the six months estimate.

2. The figures proposed for 1896-97 represent the probable transactions for the periods February to June and July to December 1896.

3. The decrease of Rs. 3300 in the estimate of the Calicut. Cannanore and of Rs. 14,000/- in that of the Shoranur. Cochin Survey is due to larger outlay during 1894-95, than anticipated, which reduced the balance of the estimates to be spent during the current official year.

4. The surveys are expected to be completed during 1895-96, and no provision has consequently been made for the ensuing year. The Shoranur. Cochin Survey will, it is expected be completed for Rs 10,000/- less than the estimate for the work.
