RAILWAY SURVEYS.

No. 711

From

THE ENGINEER-IN-CHIEF,

MADURA PAMBAN AND TINNEVELLY-QUILON RAILWAY SURVEYS,

To

THE CONSULTING ENGINEER FOR RAILWAYS,

MADRAS.

Dated, Coimbatore 16th October.

1895.

Per No. 3196 of 10th Oct. 1895

Sir

With reference to Enormous's Office Note No. 157A dated 2nd October I have the honor to state that the nature of the charge is accurately described in Enormous's paragraph No. 1 and I do not understand on what further point you require an explanation.

The Enormous's paragraph No. 3 appears to raise the question as to whether the Engineer-in-Chief or the Enormous shall decide by what agency work is to be carried out. In its present form it savours of impertinence.

It is suggested that this is an example not of many that have arisen of the undesirability of employing a Provincial Enormous in connection with the accounts of a Railway Survey with the procedure of which he is imperfectly acquainted.

I have the honor to be

Sir

Yours Most Obedient Servant
