P. W. DEPARTMENT.

13th December 1895.

The Government of Madras having sanctioned the erection of a pier at Tuticorin, the Agent S. I. Ry was requested to construct a siding from their Railway terminus to the pier for the purpose of conveying material. I am therefore directed to request the sanction of the Govt. of India, under Section 16(1) of Act IX of 1890, to the use of locomotive engines & rolling stock on the siding in question and to the the adoption on the same siding, while under construction, of the general rules for working railways under construction.
