To
The Consulting Engineer for Railways

From Engineer-in-Chief, BANGALORE.

Sir,

I have the honor to point out that under C. S. R. act 1133 Appendix 22. Surveyors are specially exempted from drawing Travelling Allowance and their pay is supposed to be fixed to cover Travelling Allowance. I have 3 temporary Surveyors with me, one of whom, Sunderland, always drew Travelling allowance in Rummah under Mr Bagley, and audit of his Travelling Allowance has been deferred under Act 1133. pending information as to whether he has had to journey beyond his jurisdiction.

I propose with your approval to grade these men as ^{Lower} ~~Upper~~ Subordinates, Temporary, and it would then seem that they would come under art.
1101 C. S. R.

I have found previously that no increase of pay satisfies these men for deprivation of Travelling Allowance. and no matter what their pay be fixed at they still remain dissatisfied at the loss of Travelling allowance which the permanent men draw. On this Survey especially I think they should be allowed it, and if my proposal to regrade these men meets your approval and will make their Travelling allowance a legiti-mate Charge, it will be better and

and more economical than increasing their monthly pay.

I have the honor to be

It is for Government to decide whether the reasons ad-travelling allowance admissible to members of corresponding rank on the permanent establishment, vide C.S.R. 1101.

Sir,

I have the honour to state in reply to your no 1998 dated 25th June '95 that I propose to designate the following men as "Temporary Upper Subordinates" instead of "Surveyors" to avoid their being classed under 1133 - B. P.

Regulation.	Salary.	Daily allowance.
A. Molloy.	Rs 100 - X	1 - 0 - 0 per diem
B. Peters.	" 60 - X	0 - 10 - 0 "
Sunder Singh.	" 60 - X	1 - 0 - 0 "

They will thereby become entitled to the daily allowance shewn opposite their names under Part: 1167 (iii) in the case of Sunder Singh 1259 (iii) also, his work being in South Canara, of the B. P. Regulation & so save further question.

S.R.
Encl has not answered my question very clear: I find from examination that the papers show that the men are drawing at present.

It depends on what terms the men were originally employed - by taking an as sur-field - it seems not administrable that they should be now expanded to include them to draw allowance in the first - please refer

Sir, With reference to my letter No 542 dated 28th June 1895; I have the honor to inform you that I now find that the rate of Travelling Allowances admissible to the "Temporary & Special Subordinate" staff will be under Article 1101 C. EXAMINER'S REPLY.

To E. R.

It is for Government to decide whether the three surveyors, who have been graded as temporary upper subordinates, should be allowed daily allowance at Rs. I-8-0, the rate admissible to an overseer on the permanent establishment vide C. S. R. article 1101 or whether the rates already sanctioned are sufficient. In this connection it may be observed that it is a general principle that temporary servants, having no claim to pension, and only a conditional claim to absentee allowances, are ordinarily paid higher salaries than they would receive if on permanent employment and that consequently the class in which the temporary officer is to be placed should, for the purpose of determining travelling allowance ordinarily be that of a permanent servant receiving somewhat lower salary.
