Copy of letter from Agent S. I. Railway
No. 93 dated 30th January 1896.

Referring to the first para of your letter No: 4112 of 20th December 1895, regarding the construction of the Karikal Peralam Railway I have the honour to forward herewith two tracings of land plan No. P.K. $\frac{39}{95}$, accompanied by 10 schedules in duplicate, shewing the land to be acquired in British Territory in the District of Tanjore / not South Arcot as stated in your letter / for the construction of the line. -

Land transfer statements (in duplicate) are also forwarded, one set to be signed by the Revenue Officer and returned when the lands have been taken up, which, it is hoped may be done as soon as possible so that advantage may be taken of the dry season. Mr. J. A. T. Manning, Assistant Engineer, at Karikal, will take over the land.
