SCHEDULE.

This image shows a page of handwritten musical notation. The notation is written on a five-line staff and consists of various symbols, including vertical lines, dots, and horizontal strokes, organized into measures by vertical bar lines. The handwriting is somewhat stylized and difficult to decipher, but it appears to be a form of shorthand or a specific musical dialect. The notation is dense and covers most of the page.

NOTIFICATION.

29-32, be the same a little more or less, is needed for a public purpose, to wit, for the Baymunde Indian Reservation and measuring acres for the Baymunde Indian Reservation and under Sections 3 and 7 of the same Act, the said office is directed to take order for the acquisition of the said land.

SCHEDULE

[illegible]
