SCHEDULE:

[illegible]

Special Deputy Collector's Office, Ponnani, 20 June 1896.

From

The Special Deputy Collector, Public Division,
Bezvada Madras Railway.

To

The Collector of the Chingleput District, Saidapet.

Sir,
In acquiring lands for the Bezvada Madras Railway, in the Ponnani taluk, lands had also to be taken up in Shrotrian Paleswaran Kandigai village, which is an un--enfranchised whole inam village attached to the temple of Paleswara Swamiam. A money compensation of Rs 256-3-6 has been awarded for these lands, with which I beg to propose the acquisition of wet field 105 in Seria Shishu--baki kam village. This field is held on putta by one Ramier who agrees to give up the land for the amount awarded for temple inam lands in Paleswaran Kandigai. There being no waste or poramboke lands fit to be given in exchange, the trustee of the temple requests that this land be acquired and converted as temple inam.
The tahildar of Ponnani reports that this - Paleswaran Kandigai is an enfranchised temple main village, but a reference to the title deed which is herewith submitted, for reference and kind return, shows that this man was merely confirmed to the temple subject to the fulfilment of the conditions under which it had originally been granted and also subject to the payment of the then existing quit rent of Rs 3-10-9. It cannot, therefore, be treated as enfranchised and no money compensation paid therefor to the trustee.

2. The usual draft declaration is, therefore, submitted herewith.
