GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

3. The confidential report and the annual additions to the record of service have been amalgamated into one form (A.I.F. 8). On the 1st January of each year, every Military Assistant Surgeon will fill in those portions (pages 1 and 2) which relate to the additions to his record of service for the past year, and, after signing and dating it, will submit the return to the Medical officer in charge. The latter will then fill in the confidential report (pages 3 and 4), and after signing and dating the document, will forward it to the District Principal Medical Officer for completion and transmission to the Surgeon-General with the Government of India, through the Command Principal Medical Officer, and Principal Medical Officer, Her Majesty's Forces in India.

4. On the transfer of a Military Assistant Surgeon from one appointment to another, a confidential report prepared up to the date of transfer will invariably be attached to the transfer return (A.H.F. 19), the additions to the record of service (pages 1 and 2) being removed in this instance as unnecessary.

5. Every Military Assistant Surgeon should keep in his possession a copy of the annual additions to his record of service. Those who enter the service after the 1st January 1896, should each keep a copy of his record of service also.

II.—Hospital Assistant Branch.

6. Immediately after a Sub-Hospital Assistant has been gazetted into the service, he will prepare one copy of his Record of Service (A.H.F. 22) and submit it to the Medical officer in charge for transmission direct to the Surgeon-General with the Government of India.

7. The confidential report and the annual additions to the record of service have been amalgamated into one form (A.H.F. 9). On the 1st January of each year, every Hospital Assistant will fill in those portions (pages 1 and 2) which relate to the additions to his record of service for the past year, and after signing and dating it, will submit the return to the Medical officer in charge. The latter will then fill in the confidential report (pages 3 and 4), and after signing and dating the document will forward it to the District Principal Medical Officer for the Command Principal Medical Officer, and Principal Medical Officer, Her Majesty's Forces in India.

8. On the transfer of a hospital assistant from one appointment to another, a confidential report prepared up to the date of transfer will invariably be attached to the transfer return (A.H.F. 19), the additions to the record of service being removed in this instance as unnecessary.

9. Every hospital assistant should keep in his possession a copy of the annual additions to his record of service. All sub-hospital assistants entering the service after the 1st January 1896 should each keep a copy of his record of service also.
