Your No:1719/881 of 4th Instant.

As requested in your above, I referred to the Loco Superintendent, Madras Railway, as to what is being done in Perambur Works and he states that their Agent has sanctioned the closing of the shops for one of the two days fixed for the celebration without stoppage of pay to daily paid men. As I intend closing the Workshops on Tuesday the 22nd instant, will you please let me know if the men may be allowed to draw their wages for that day?.

EXAMINER'S REPLY.

There are no orders on the subject that I am aware of, and the question is one for the decision of Govt.

CR 30/6/97

As we cannot do it without special sanction, the change would be put by this type under audit system when Jones' accounts are under examination.

ER. I noticed that the LAWYER paid their staff
at Breeze for the air day, holidays given - but the recent strike at Nagasatam
should be considered.
