the inhabitants of Trivandrum, and cordially welcoming your Excellency into the town, they respectfully lay before your Excellency a few suggestions which in our humble opinion are calculated to promote the welfare of the Province and our town in particular.
The wide spread reputation of your Excellency's generous inclinations towards the people of the Presidency under your Excellency's charge, and the constant efforts to do good to the people, have been deemed it to present to your Excellency a subject of great importance and one which we have been expecting to present to you.
