Madras, (Vide Gazette of India dated 26th May 1894 P.W.D. Notification No. 221) it cannot be stated what officiating allowance the Government of India intend to allow Mr. Grant under article 184 of the C.S.R.,

3. Major Waller is Examiner 3rd. class, temporary rank, but the appointment of Government Examiner, Madras, does not apparently carry with it any particular pay, and the Officer posted to it draws the pay of his substantive or temporary rank as the case may be.

4. unless therefore the Government of India are pleased to dispense with the proviso to article 184(iii) Mr. Grant can draw no officiating allowance.
