Government of India letter sanctioning the grant, as a special case, of a — of Rs. 750 to the widow of late Apothecary Jones of the Madras Railway, communicated to the Agent for information.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Railway.

Read again the following paper:—

From the Officiating Joint Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, Railway Branch, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department, Simla, dated 24th August 1897, No. 592 R.

I am directed to forward, for the favourable consideration of the Government of India, copies of the correspondence marginally noted relating to an application for a gratuity of Rs. 750 (equivalent to six months' pay) payable to the widow of Apothecary Jones of the Madras Railway.

2. It will be seen from Agent and Manager's letter, No. G. 652/429 of 4th May 1897, that there are special reasons for the grant in question which has been also sanctioned by the Board of Directors.

The proposed gratuity not being admissible under any sanctioned rules, application is made to the grant as a special case.

ENCLOSURES.

From the Acting Agent and Manager, Madras Railway Company, to the Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 4th May 1897, No. G. 652/429.

I have the honour to inform you that an application for gratuity has been received from the widow of the late Mr. J. D. Jones, Apothecary at Arkonam, who died of cholera in January last. The Medical officer in forwarding the application writes as follows:—

"The applicant's husband was in the Company's service from 1st January 1877, and his record shows that he did his work honestly and to the satisfaction of his superiors. When cholera broke out in Arkonam in December last, he worked with great vigour in stamping out the disease, and in attending patients who had become the subjects of it. He nursed patients night and day, when he would have fulfilled his duty by simply visiting and prescribing for them. I don't think there is any doubt that it was through his devotion to his patients that he contracted the disease of which he died."

2. Mr. Jones was in the Company's service for over twenty years and is reported to have been very steady and industrious in the discharge of his duties. I therefore request that the sanction of Government may, as a special case, be conveyed to me for the disbursement of a gratuity of Rs. 750 (equal to six months' pay) to Mrs. Jones who has been left in straitened circumstances.

From the Acting Agent and Manager, Madras Railway Company, to the Consulting Engineer for Railways, dated Madras, 17th August 1897, No. G. 652/795.

Adverting to your letter, No. 1655 of the 14th May 1897, I have the honour to inform you that the question of granting a bonus to the widow of the late Apothecary J. D. Jones was submitted to the Board on the 26th May last, and in their reply, paragraph 10 of letter, No. 958, dated the 16th July last, they write to me as follows:—

"Adverting to paragraph 8 of No. 2310, I am to inform you that, subject to the approval of Government, the Board sanction the proposed grant to the widow of Apothecary Jones of the sum of Rs. 750 equivalent to six months' pay, in consideration of her late husband's long service of twenty years, and to his having unfortunately succumbed to an attack of cholera contracted during the performance of his duties. It is observed that the above application is strongly supported by you and the Medical officer."

I therefore beg to request that the sanction of the Government of India may be obtained to the payment of Rs. 750 to Mrs. Jones.
A sum of Rs. 1,001-11-1 stood in the Provident Institution at the credit of the late Mr. Jones at the time of his death.

Read also the following paper:—

From the Under Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department (General), to the Officiating Joint Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, Railway Branch, dated Calcutta, 24th November 1897, No. 3116 G.

With reference to your letter, No. 592 R., dated 24th August 1897, I am directed to communicate the sanction of the Government of India to the grant, as a special case, of a gratuity of Rs. 750, equivalent of six months' pay of the deceased, to the widow of Apothecary Jones of the Madras Railway who died from cholera which he contracted in attending patients who were attacked with that disease.

2. It is noted that the grant of the gratuity in question has been approved by the Board in paragraph 10 of their letter, No. 958, dated 16th July 1897.

ORDER—No. 1094 R., dated 6th December 1897.
