Pilgrims to Vykunta Yakadasi festival at Srirangam.

With reference to my "all Stations" Message No. K. 980 of 7th instant, the Government of India (Home Department) now cancels the Instruction therein given and sanctions the following in its stead.

Sale of Railway tickets to Trichinopoly (Junction and Fort), Tiruverumbur and Elamanur is prohibited, from the 10th to 24th instant, at any station except those in the Madras Presidency, Mysore, Bengal and Assam, to any pilgrims or other persons intending or believed to be intending to attend the Vykunta Yakadasi festival.

Stations must, therefore, act in accordance with the Telegraphic order No. K. 984 sent to them yesterday from this office and book as usual to Trichinopoly (Junction and Fort), Tiruverumbur and Elamanur stations.

These stations should report to me at once any cases of pilgrims arriving thereat with tickets from railway stations prohibited, under this ruling, from issuing such tickets.

Sir,

Referring to correspondence ending with Government Order N^o 1128 R dated 13th December 1897 regarding the appointment of Trichinopoly Junction and Fort Stations as "Inspection Stations" under the Epidemic Diseases Act and the prohibition of the sale of Railway Tickets to Trichinopoly from any Railway Stations except those in the Madras Presidency, Bengal and Assam, I have the honor to forward herewith for information six copies of our Acting Traffic Manager's Circular N^o C. 848 of 9th December 1897.

In connection herewith, I would point out that though the orders communicated in your telegram of 8th December 1897 restrict the issue of Railway Tickets to Trichinopoly, Tiruverambur, and Elamaram Stations, no mention is made of Kolatur South the nearest Station on the Southern side of Trichinopoly Junction.

I would also invite attention to the fact that the Vaikunta Ekadasi Festival at Srirangam will, I am informed, last up to 3rd January 1898.

I have the honor to be

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

READ the following paper:—

From the Public Works Department, Railway Branch, dated 20th December 1897 No. 61 R.M. forwarding for favour of very early action copy of a letter from the Agent South Indian Railway pointing out the omission of "Kolatur South" in the names of stations prohibited to sell tickets to pilgrims to Vaikunta Ekadasi Festival at Srirangam.

Order No. 2854 M.Mis., dated 22nd December 1897.

The Government does not consider it necessary to prohibit the issue of tickets to Kolatur South on the line from Trichinopoly to Madura, as pilgrims from the plague affected parts are not likely to enter Srirangam from that side.
