788. A Local Government may, as a special case, grant a gratuit not exceeding Rs. 20, or two months' pay, whichever is less, to a day labourer or mechanic injured or to his representatives if he is killed, in the execution of duty by causes beyond his control, if the injury is not such as to allow of a wound or extraordinary pension being granted under the foregoing rules.

The object of such gratuity is to enable the injured person or th representative of the deceased to return to his friends or to afford him subsistence for a little time. The gratuity is chargeable to the workon which the injured person or the deceased was engaged.

A list of gratuities granted under this rule during the year should be forwarded annually on the 1st March to the Government of Ind in the Public Works Department.

SIR,

I have the honour to acknowledge receipt of your endorsement No. 1601. dated 18th Instant and to state that no gratuities have been granted on this Railway under article 788 of the Civil service Regulations, and as this Railway is not controlled by the Civil Service Regulations it would appear that Government of India No. 1316G dated 7th May 1895, has been submitted to this Office in error. All gratuities granted to employés injured by accident when on duty, or to their relatives, when the accident has proved fatal, are duly recorded in the Minutes of the official meetings. Such gratuities have been
