In continuation of my letter No. 293. R. dated the 27th inst, I am directed to forward a copy of a letter from the Agent, Clerk of Ct. No. 8314 dated the 27th April 1897, with its ⁴⁰¹enclosures.

The enclosure consist of a report No. C. 514 dated April, 13th 1897 by the Company's offg. Chief Eng^r on the proposed short branch line to the Palar river bank at Raminet just opposite Arcot City together with a plan and a estimate of its cost.

estimate of its cost.
The Agent still awaits the Board's sanction to the pro^{pos}, and as soon as I hear of their having replied to him I shall wire you the result.

Meanwhile it is thought advisable to send forward the information now available in the belief that it will probably serve your present purpose, viz, the discussion of the scheme at the Coming Conference. Should the proposed branch commend itself to the Board and to the Govt of to India it shall in due course when ready, be sent forward in the prescribed proper shape.

I am desired to add that, as regards this and all other projects for Railway extension in this Presidency, the Govt of India are being addressed in a separate letter in which the views of this Govt. as to the advicability or otherwise of undertaking each of the projects, shall in due course be communicated.
