SIR,

Referring to letter N^o. 343 dated 26th February 1897 (Copy enclosed) from the Superintendent of Stationery, objecting to the supply of duplicate rubber stamps without Government sanction, I have the honor to request you will authorize that officer to supply this office with another stamp made to the enclosed diagram to enable the old one now much damaged by use, being sent for repair. The stamp required is one that is constantly used by the Branch Office at Trichinopoly in defacing the Company's bills in the daily audit, and as such cannot be spared for repairs unless another is substituted.
