Read the following papers:—

No. 376. From Lieutenant-Colonel C. CARTER, Officiating Controller of Military Accounts, to Colonel E. L. HANKIN, Secretary to Government, Military Department; dated Fort St. George, 14th April 1883, D.

I have the honor to bring to notice that the rates under which commissariat and ordnance stores are to be conveyed by the East India and State Railways are prescribed in Proceedings of Government, No. 315, of 20th January 1881, and that it was subsequently ruled in Proceedings of Government, No. 3024, of 20th June 1882, that all Government property consigned by the Commissariat and Ordnance Departments should be classed and charged for as commissariat and ordnance stores.

2. There is, however, no ruling to govern charges for stores despatched by other departments of Government, such as the medical and clothing, and in consequence the reduced rates are held to be inapplicable to such stores.

3. I would accordingly suggest that the rules above quoted be extended to apply to all Government stores irrespective of the department by which consigned.

(a) When despatched by mail trains, the fare to be paid will be the lowest rate at which the public are booked by such trains.

N. B.—On troop extra trains carriages partly occupied by persons subject to the Army Act or Indian Articles of War will be charged for on a minimum of half a carriage. In 1st and 2nd class carriages the same number of fares will be charged as to the public for reserving the compartment but at contract rates.

In the case of reserved 1st and 2nd class accommodation occupied by persons not subject to the Army Act or Indian Articles of War the same rules will apply, but the charges will be made at tariff rates for the actual number travelling and at contract rates for the number of fares required to make up the number of fares chargeable to the public for the compartment occupied.

On the Madras railway the charge for 1st and 2nd class compartments will be either the same number of fares as chargeable to the public for reserving the compartment at tariff rates, or for the whole carriage at contract rates at the option of the military authorities.

In 3rd class carriages on all railways the minimum charge will be for half the carriage based on its military carrying capacity.

On ordinary trains the charge for 1st and 2nd class compartments occupied by persons subject to the Army Act or Indian Articles of War will be the same number of fares as chargeable to the public at contract rates. For persons not subject to the Army Act or Indian Articles of War tariff rates will be charged.

(For the number of fares charged to the public for reserved accommodation on different railways see the published coaching tariffs.)
