stations from Káraikkal may be intimated to this office at an early date.

2. As the code initials A.X.R. proposed for Ambagarattur are identical with those in use for Allúru Road station on the Bezwada-Madras Railway, if there are no objections, the code initials A.B.T. may be adopted instead.

3. With regard to the procedure to be followed for verification of the spelling of the names of railway stations and allotment of code initials, I am to invite attention to the Government of India Circular No. 6, Railway, of the 25th June 1897, and to state that authority for approval of the spelling of the names of railway stations and allotment of code initials has been vested in Local Governments.

ORDER—No. 628 R., dated 8th September 1897.

Paragraphs 1 and 2 of the letter read above will be forwarded by the Consulting Engineer for Railways to the Agent, South Indian Railway, for information and guidance.
